National Nuclear Security Administration

David L. Marks, Jr., serves as the Director, Office of Field Financial Management for the U.S. Department of Energy's (DOE) National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA). As Director, Marks serves as the chief financial officer for NNSA's field operations and is responsible for planning and executing policies and programs related to NNSA's conduct of field financial management including accounting, financial systems, budget execution, financial reporting, financial oversight and performance assessment. He has overall responsibility for ensuring effective financial stewardship and financial integrity for about $12B provided to NNSA for the conduct of direct and contract operations at field locations throughout the nation. Prior to his current appointment, Marks was Assistant Manager for Business and Financial Services/Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for NNSA's Nevada Operations Office (NV).

Marks joined NV in 1991 as Director, Resources Management Division and was appointed CFO in 1992. In 1996 he was appointed Deputy Assistant Manager for Business and Financial Services and CFO. He transferred to NV from DOE's Albuquerque Office where he was Director, Financial Management Division. Marks has served in DOE Headquarters as a special assistant to the Office of Controller in 1986, and to the Office of Defense Programs in 1996. In 2002, he served in NNSA Headquarters as the Acting Deputy Associate Administrator for Facilities and Operations.

Marks began his career in 1971, as an accounting intern in Albuquerque, New Mexico with DOE's predecessor agency, the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. Later he worked at the Albuquerque Operations Office as a cost analyst, budget analyst, Chief Budget Operations, Chief Accountant, Deputy Director, Financial Management Division, Director Financial Management and Controller.

A native of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Marks served five years in the U.S. Air Force 1963 to 1967. Marks is married to the former Alison Flynn and has two grown daughters: Sherry in Las Vegas and Christie in Austin, Texas
